Atelier. A note

Atelier gathers the eight pieces our studio returns to most, two drawn from each of our four collections. Together they form a single room in miniature: seating, light, and sculpture that read as stone and bronze yet carry the quiet weight of fiberglass.

Every surface is hand-laid and hand-finished, so the honed limestone, travertine, charcoal, and plaster looks hold the slight irregularities of real quarried material. Our aged and burnished bronzes are built up in layered patinas and rubbed back by hand, giving each piece a glow that no two editions share exactly.
